

321—25.2(231C) Program certification. A program may become certified by meeting all the requirements in Iowa Code Supplement chapter 231C and the applicable rules of this chapter. In addition, a program may be voluntarily accredited by either CARF or JCAHO. For the purpose of these rules, certification is equivalent to licensure. A current certificate shall be visibly displayed within the designated area of the operation of the program.